ORDER:

The Commissionerate of Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department was bifurcated into two separate wings i.e., Commissioner of Panchayat Raj & Rural Employment and Commissioner of Rural Development during August, 1993. Government considered and issued separate service rules vide reference 2nd read above, as Andhra Pradesh Rural Development Service Rules governing the various posts sanctioned in the State Cadre to the Commissionerate of Rural Development. While formulating the special Service Rules, the Government have issued specifications for filling up of various categories of posts by transfer on tenure from other Departments and by promotion from feeder categories. Government have permitted one post in the cadre of Additional Chief Executive Officer of Class-A under Category-3 (By the method of appointment by promotion from Class-B Category-1) and one post of Joint Chief Executive Officer of Class-B under Category-1 (By the method of appointment by promotion from Class-D) and three posts in the cadre of Assistant Director (Including Accounts Officer & Accounts Officer-cum-Administrative Officer) by the Method of appointment by transfer from the category of Superintendent of Commissionerate of Rural Development (Regular Employees). One post of Deputy Director (Soil Conservation) of Class-C under Category-2 (By the method of appointment by transfer on tenure from Agriculture Department) is available in the cadre of Dy. Director.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, Sri P. Rosaiah, MPDO has stated that he was appointed through APPSC under Direct Recruitment of Group-I service as Mandal Parishad Development Officer and requested the Government to absorb his services in Rural Development Department as Deputy Director considering his length of service and consider his case under Appointment by Transfer in relaxation of service rules in vogue, as a special case.

3. In the circumstances reported by the Director, Rural Development vide reference 4th read above, after careful consideration of the proposal contained therein, Government hereby absorb the services of Sri P.Rosaiah, Mandal Parishad Development Officer, as Deputy Director in Rural Development Department under Appointment by Transfer in relaxation of service rules in vogue as a special case.

4. The Director, PR&RD, Vijayawada shall take necessary action accordingly.
